Happy Holiday to Family of Missing Dog

Sequim, Washington- Saturday, December 23, at 3:00 pm, the Sherrif's office coordinated with Clallam Fire District #3 on a reported dog on a wooded cliffside that had been missing for the previous four days in the Finn Hall Road area. At 3:38 pm, CCFD3 was dispatched to Finn Hall Road for the rescue. Residents could hear the dog barking down a bluff but did not attempt to bring it to safe ground themselves due to a steep embankment with a drop-off near the shoreline.

Battalion 304 arrived, established command, and requested Technical Rescue support. Rescue 34 responded with two firefighters. Four additional personnel arrived by personal vehicle. An additional firefighter arrived by ambulance on the way back to Sequim from the hospital in Port Angeles between calls.

Together, crews were able to rescue the pup safely and effectively. The owners are happy to have their dog back home safe, just in time for Christmas.
